Part III - Election for Payroll Deduction

(Complete this section if you are enrolling through your employer’s benefit offering)

I authorize my employer to deduct my HSA contributions from my payroll, and forward them to my HSA.

My health plan coverage Type: Single Family

Note – The HSA has a maximum annual contribution limit that is determined by your health insurance coverage (self-only/family). Your employer may choose to contribute to your HSA, which will count towards to your maximum contribution allowed. Your health plan eligibility determines the effective date of your HSA. If you are covered on December 1, you’re considered eligible for the entire year and not required to pro-rate your contributions. If you cease to be an eligible individual during the next calendar year, any contributions over the prorated amount may be an excess contribution. You are solely responsible for determining whether contributions to your HSA exceed the maximum annual contribution limitation. You are also responsible for notifying the custodian of any excess contribution and requesting a withdrawal of the excess contribution together with any net income attributable to the excess contribution. For additional information regarding eligible and contribution limits please go to: www.irs.gov.
